

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is obviously nothing short of a political tactic on Sinclair Broadcasting's part. It does not serve the public interest for any American to have the airwaves controlled by those who have an agenda.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
